

CROW WING CO. THRESHING REPORTS INDICATE FAIR CROP

YIELDS GIVEN IN SOUTH LONG LAKE

On the Average, Says Ed Betzold, Rye Will Run at Least 18 Bushels to the Acre

Oats 30 Bushels, Spring Wheat 18 Bushels and Barley 20 Bushels---Frost Damages Corn

Threshing yields reported by Betzold & Duval as made in South Long Lake township give definite figures on crops in sections of Crow Wing county.

Crops, on the average, they assert will run about 18 bushels of rye to the acre, oats 30 bushels, spring wheat 18 and barley 20.

Corn was damaged by the frost of August 28, some farms reporting total losses. Hay has yielded but half a crop. Very little winter wheat was raised in the county.

Potatoes will yield a bountiful crop, from 100 to 150 bushels to the acre. Berry crops are fairly large. Vegetables all thrived well in the county.

Here are some figures on threshing at South Long Lake farms. Rye went 21 bushels to the acre at Philip Betzold's farm. Oats yielded 35 bushels to the acre and spring wheat 16 bushels.

At H. M. Bouck's farm a small plot in spring wheat went 20 bushels to the acre. Eight acres yielded 333 bushels of oats.

At J. W. Bouck's farm Betzold & Duval threshed 555 bushels of oats. At P. B. Anderson's farm 510 bushels of rye were threshed.

At Joe Brusseau 25 acres of rye threshed out 650 bushels.

At the F. H. Gruenhagen farm just south of Brainerd there was threshed out 397 bushels of barley.

WAGING WAR IN EARNEST

Secretary Daniels Says Peace Rumors Will Be Unheeded.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 31.—Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, speaking here at the breaking of ground for the government armor plate and projectile plant, declared America is fighting not only for the democratic nations of the world, but is waging "the battle of the people of the German empire themselves."

"Germany began this war for a place in the sun," said the secretary. "It has conducted it with the idea it must have the only place. We believe that there can be no place in the sunshine for any nation underneath the ominous shadow of the Prussian eagle, no sunshine even for the people of Germany themselves."

"Let there be no fear that rumors of peace or possibilities of a cessation of the struggle will cause us to remit one moment our activities on sea and shore," he said. "Not until the peace treaty is actually signed will we remit one single item from our program of preparation."

Wheat Growing States Invite Conference to Protest Prices Fixed

(By United Press)
St. Paul, August 31—All wheat growing states have invited a price fixing conference at St. Paul. The meeting has been called by the National Non-partisan League to protest against the wheat price fixed by congressmen and will probably be held Sept. 17 to 19, federal officials and farmers from all sections being invited and President Townley of the league expects 10,000 will be in attendance. The indications are that the farmers will hold out for $3 wheat at the meeting and President Townley says the price set is too low and means bankruptcy for many farmers and that thousands of them would have to turn to other crops next year.

Five Cent Loaf Fourteen Ounces Wheat Price $2.20

Washington, August 31—The five cent loaf containing 14 ounces is in sight as a result of the government wheat price of $2.20 per bushel for No. 1 spring northern wheat. The administration believes the new price will make the farmers' profits sure and prevent speculation and give the millers a basis for a fair margin, besides assuring the workingmen a fair bread price. The price fixing committee says they believe the farmer as a patriotic duty should be willing to relinquish some of their profits.

Denounce Wheat Price An Injustice to Farmers

Washington, August 31—Congressman Baer, non-partisan, denounced the wheat price as an injustice to the farmers and declared that the government has broken faith with the northwest producers. Senator Johnson, of South Dakota, declared the farmer could get $3.00 to $3.60 for their wheat, and the government was therefore taking close to 80 per cent of the farmers' profits, and declared "Now let's do the same thing all along the line."

Gregg, secretary of the company, were indicted under the Sherman law by a federal grand jury in New York along with fifteen other manufacturers of automobile accessories and nearly a score of individuals, including William M. Webster, commissioner of the National Association of Automobile Accessory Jobbers, charged with conspiracy to restrain trade.

The indictment charges that at meetings in New York resolutions in conflict with the Sherman law were passed.

It is further alleged the defendants sought to monopolize the manufacture and sale of automobile horns, lamps, spark plugs and other accessories. The formation of the association, it is charged, was for fixing prices.

AMERICAN NAVY IS CONVOYING SHIPS

Washington, Aug. 31.—American naval forces are convoying merchant craft across the Atlantic, it was disclosed officially at the navy department, and examination of the records show that the loss of convoyed ships by submarines has averaged less than one-half of 1 per cent.

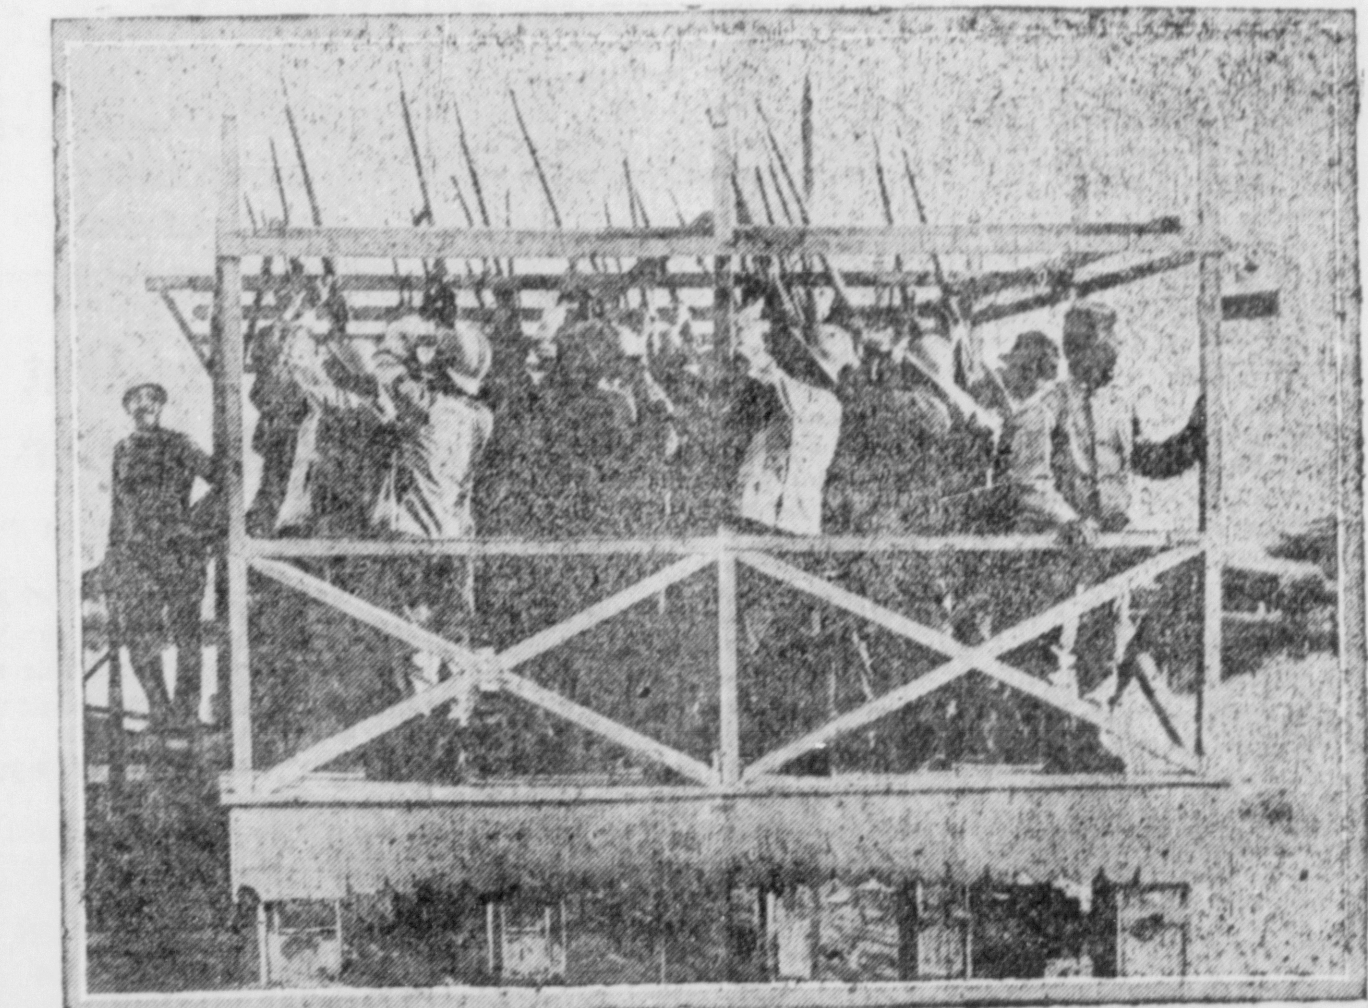

American war vessels are regularly escorting fleets of allied merchantmen across, the protection being supplemented, when the danger zone is reached, by destroyers and other patrol craft.

American naval officials believe that an effective system for checking the submarine menace is being built up.

Official reports indicate that American destroyers have encountered several U-boats and accounted for them with depth bombs.

No U-boat has been captured by the Americans. It is the best judgment of high officials, however, that several have been sunk by Admiral Sims' destroyers and they are confident today, more confident than ever before, that the submarine menace will be substantially abated as the number of destroyers and other craft is increased.

Sharpshooters Adopt New Plan to Protect Venice from Air Raid

Italian sharpshooters have a new plan to protect Venice with her costly works of art and architecture from raiding Austrian airplanes. They have built a frame work on the top of a house for gun rests, and there twenty or more of them all take aim at the invading plane and fire on it. This gives a concentrated fire, which it is as difficult for the airman to escape as from a rapid-fire gun.

WOMAN'S REALM

U. S. RED CROSS IN RUSSIA NOW

The American Red Cross has received a cablegram from Dr. Frank S. Billings, chairman of the Red Cross commission to Russia, announcing the safe arrival of the commission in Petrograd and its reception by Premier Kerensky. The commission has already begun its investigation of conditions in Russia.

Chairman H. P. Davison, of the Red Cross War Council, on learning of the arrival of the commission, at once cabled the following message to Premier Kerensky.

"I have just received a cable announcement of the safe arrival in Petrograd of the special American Red Cross Commission to Russia. The American Red Cross numbers nearly 3,000,000 American citizens among its members, and wants you to know that the sending of this Commission with the measures of relief which it conveys and the others which we expect it will later administer are tokens of the earnest sympathy of the American Red Cross for the people of Russia in their brave struggle for the establishment of democracy and for the perpetuation of a really independent national existence."

The American Commission carried with it medical supplies to the value of $200,000. A second shipment of supplies is now being sent to Russia by the Red Cross. To cover this shipment the War Council has appropriated $160,000.

RESUMES PULPIT

Dr. G. P. Sheridan to Preach Sunday Morning at First Congregational Church

After a four months' leave of absence Rev. G. P. Sheridan has returned to the city much improved in health. While it will be impossible for him to assume all his duties for some time to come, yet it is a source of deep gratification to his many friends that he is permitted to again give to the community the fruit of his virile mind and clear vision of things.

The First Congregational church will be opened this Sunday and Dr. Sheridan will occupy the pulpit at the morning service preaching on the theme "The Consciousness of God."

At the Best Tomorrow

William S. Hart, the western character actor, will be seen in a somewhat different role from his famous bad man when "Wolf Lowry," a Triangle-Ince picture produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince, is presented at the Best theatre Saturday.

"Wolf Lowry," which is the work of Charles Turner Dazey, tells the story of a ranchman and a sort of king of the wild desert country. He portrays a strong, grim, silent man, quick on the trigger, terrible in his wrath and bitter to his enemies. His anger rises when he hears that some one has dared to take up a claim in the valley, and he immediately sets off to drive the intruder out.

The settler turns out to be quite the prettiest girl he ever saw, and a warm friendship strikes up between the two.

Graham-Cosgrove

At 8 o'clock Wednesday morning at St. Francis church, Miss Daisy Marie Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Graham, became the bride of Thomas M. Cosgrove, son of Mrs. Margaret Cosgrove, Rev. Father O'Mahoney officiating.

The bride was attired in a white satin suit with large white hat and her corsage bouquet was of bride's roses and sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Mary Cosgrove, sister of the groom who was dressed in a blue silk suit with gold lace hat. Her bouquet was of pink roses and sweet peas. James Graham, brother of the bride, was best man.

Both the bride and groom were born and reared in Brainerd. The bride has taught school in Deerwood for the past five years. The groom is an engineer on the Northern Pacific with headquarters at Duluth where they will make their home.

The happy couple left on the noon train for Minneapolis and they were given a rousing send-off by their friends who drove to Little Falls and bombarded the newly wedded pair. The bride's traveling suit was of blue serge with black hat.

Feel Worse After Vacation

The change from outdoor activity of vacation time to the quiet of regular employment sometimes makes one feel heavy and "stuffed up," uncomfortable and bilious, with a mean headache and coated tongue. ROSCE FATTY ARBUCKLE
PARAMOUNT-ARBUCKLE COMEDIES

At the Empress Saturday

Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, the latest star under the Paramount banner, who will be seen at the Empress theatre on Saturday in "The Butcher Boy," has grown so fat that when he travels by rail he is compelled to have a special private car.

Being worth his weight in laughs, is in fact, one of the most serious handicaps under which the unfortunate Mr. Arbuckle waddles, if one may believe his representations. His excess adipose tissue prevents the redoubtable comedian from ever traveling in the common variety of sleeping car and in this day of frightfully high prices he finds himself reduced to the extremity of hiring a private car when traveling to or from hither to yon.

Mr. Arbuckle, it seems, has had so many unfortunate experiences in his endeavor to inhabit the ordinary sleeping car that he lost great weight through worry, and was in a fair way to have to change his standing from the funniest fat man to the human skeleton.

"The Lone Wolf" at the Best

HERBERT BRENON PRESENTS
"THE LONE WOLF"
SELZNICK PICTURES

(Short Synopsis)

Marcel, a Paris wail, is befriended and informally adopted by Burke, a clever criminal, and taught the profession of a high-class crook. Burke is killed through the treachery of Eckstrom, an accomplice, and the boy Marcel, who has taken the name of Michael Lanyard, swears vengeance.

Lanyard, in a few years, becomes so successful as a collector of other people's jewels that the police of several countries give him the title of "The Lone Wolf," because he never works with confederates.

After robbing a wealthy Parisienne Mme. Ombre, of certain famous jewels, Lanyard learns that Eckstrom is in the city, on the trail of the secret of a new explosive which the government is anxious to obtain. Eckstrom steals the formula and kills the inventor. Lanyard trails him and gets the document, at the point of a gun.

Lanyard, a few hours after this, receives a mysterious message, containing a thinly veiled threat. He follows the direction and reaches a council of The Pack, an international organization of criminals. He is given his choice of joining them or being sentenced to death. He sneers at their threats and departs. The members of The Pack are Moriban, Popinot, Eckstrom, Smith, an American, and Wertheimer, an Englishman. Their leader is Bannion, who lives at Troyon's, his constant companion is Lucy Shannon, a nurse.

Lanyard also is staying at Troyon's. He discovers that the room adjoining his is occupied by Roddy, a detective, but cannot guess whether it is himself or The Pack that Roddy is after. Returning to his room, Lanyard finds Lucy there in negligee. She is dazed and says she must have been walking in her sleep. Lanyard leaves the hotel again, and when he returns the second time a powerful man attacks him in the dark. Lanyard is on his guard, however, and overcomes his assailant. He discovers the man to be Smith, the American member of The Pack, who has murdered Roddy and had planned to render Lanyard unconscious with a hypodermic injection, leaving him smeared with the blood of the dead man, so that he would be found and accused of the crime.

Lanyard notices that he and Smith are doubles, except for a small moustache which Smith wears. He uses the hypodermic on Smith, and shaves the moustache so that the perpetrator of the crime shall be caught in his own trap. As he is hurrying from the hotel, Lucy runs out of her room, and pleads with him to take her away with him, as she is afraid of Bannion. They go to a studio, owned by a friend of Lanyard's and are besieged by Apaches, under orders from The Pack. They escape and Lanyard, who has decided to reform, replaces Mme. Ombre's jewels in her safe. Lanyard breaks into the home of the minister of war, offering him the secret of the explosive in return for a safe passage for himself and Lucy to England by aeroplane, as Lanyard believes that only in the air will he and the girl be safe. The Pack's desperate character is proved by the fact that they discovered the events at Troyon's, rescued Smith, and burned down the hotel to hide the crime.

Meanwhile Lucy, with whom Lanyard has fallen in love, disappears, and Lanyard sees her in company with Wertheimer, of The Pack. Having taken his step toward reform only to please Lucy, Lanyard, in a desperate mood, goes back to Mme. Ombre's to recover the jewels he had previously stolen. Here he encounters members of The Pack, who attack him, but he escapes when the house is entered by gendarmes. A running fight with The Pack through the streets follows, but Lanyard, who has been joined by Lucy, escapes when a jack-knife bridge opens just in time to let the pursuing automobile drop into the stream.

Lanyard and Lucy reach the aviation field and start on their flight to England. Eckstrom, in a faster machine, follows, and after a fight in the clouds Eckstrom's machine is disabled and shoots down into the English channel. Arriving at their destination, Lanyard discovers that the driver of their aeroplane is Wertheimer, who only joined The Pack to get evidence, as a secret service man, and that Lucy is a member of the same organization.

Wertheimer decides that Lanyard has won immunity by his services against The Pack, and he and Lucy are free to carry out their romance. "The Lone Wolf" appears at the Best theatre Sept. 3 and 4.

WAR DUTY OF BOYS

"Should I go back to school this fall? Shouldn't I be doing something for my country in the war?" These questions undoubtedly are in the minds of thousands of American boys. Upon the authority of the president, the secretary of war, the secretary of the navy, the postmaster-general, other government officials, war leaders and college presidents, the American Boy gives the answers in its September issue.

This answer is: "Do both—go back to school; that will be a service to your country—the greatest you can give."

Such counsel, given on such authority, will help to solve a problem that naturally has vexed not only boys but parents.

"You want to know reasons; you want to be shown," says the magazine in an article based on the letters of a score of eminent men. "Think of the war first. This isn't a war merely of numbers of soldiers and their sheer brute force. It's a war of trained men—a war that is fought largely by mathematicians, skilled mechanics, electricians, aeronauts, seamen, chemists, sanitation experts, surgeons, business men. Thousands and thousands of these educated leaders in the war have been killed or lost to the service through wounds; other thousands may be destroyed. Who will take their places if the war continues long? Certainly it will not be the boys who have dropped out of school.

"There's another reason—a big one. The work of the world will go on after this war has ended. War or no war there must be skilled mechanics, electricians, aeronauts, seamen, chemists, sanitation experts, surgeons, business men. There will be fewer such after the war. That means there will be an unusually good opportunity for you to gain success and distinction in your chosen line of work. But you can't succeed, you can't gain distinction, if you have been a 'slacker' in school.

"The best reason for your staying in school we haven't given yet. It is not only that you can earn more money, when you are a man, if you stay in school; it is not only that you will have a better chance to succeed, as an educated man, because so many educated men will have been lost. It is that, after this terrible war with its tragic destruction, the world will have to be rebuilt. That will be your job; that is, you must do a part of the job. Which part will it be? Will it be an important part because you are fitted by education to do an important part, or will you just drift along, doing what others tell you to do, a follower, if not a bungler? Going to school now, this year, and sticking through, are the first essentials. Don't drop out. Don't be a slacker. Don't be a quitter. 'Carry on!' Do it for your country's sake."

"Eliminate the use of pork on account of unfair prices," is the advice of dealers to their patrons in Minneapolis and in other sections of the country. The use of other meats is urged in order to put a check upon the rapidly advancing prices for pork. The statement is made that there were 93,000,000 pounds of pork in cold storage and that this was put up on the basis of 15 to 16 cents. The supply of fresh pork becoming scarce the packers have simply marked the prices up for all this storage pork.

TO THE END

(Minneapolis Journal)

America conceives she has a mission in this world and no selfish one. She is now in the war to accomplish that mission for her own sake and the sake of the race. But she is being appealed to in the name of Prussia to forego her mission before it is fulfilled. Her foe is now invoking compassion for himself and his folk, although as wild beast drunk with blood raging through Belgium and Serbia and in northern France, he derided sentiment and scorned humanity.

Remember the babies and the women of the Lusitania. Remember the outraged girls of France and the deported Belgium men. Remember the German absence of heart when the German was the stronger. For his sins the German must atone. And it comforts not at all with his former savagery, this vicarious calling for mercy through the mouths of his apologists and well-wishers here.

If our will relents, if we fail to push this war to its finish, the job will have to be done a second time.

Let that certainty steel our resolution now. The will to conquer, the resolution to dominate, resides in Germany still, and we must beat it to extinction now or submit to prepare against its renewed adventure in the future.

Mail Carrier C. C. Mr. Wheeler was returning from Knapp's at Bay Lake and was accompanied by Jay McCarvill and Martin Torgerson. The only damage sustained by the Sherlund car was a broken fender.

(Crosby Courier)

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Hedborn of Crosby suffered severe injuries Sunday evening, when the car in which they were riding turned turtle, pinning them under the car. Mr. Hedborn sustained a broken arm and Mrs. Hedborn a slight concussion of the brain. They are both being cared for at the Crosby hospital. The car was driven by Anton Lidstrom and the party was returning from a farm near Atkin with berries, the accident occurring near Crosby Beach. It is said the accident was caused by the breaking of the steering gear.

AIRMEN WILL CARRY NOTE

President's Reply to Pope to Be Given German People.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The task of informing the German people, especially the soldiers in the trenches, of the contents of President Wilson's reply to the pope's peace note will not be left entirely to the Imperial German government by the United States.

Already plans are under way for getting this information to the Kaiser's subjects. The reply will be translated into German, printed in pamphlet form and scattered broadcast over the German lines from airplanes.

This course was followed last April in getting the president's war address before congress to the German soldiers.

UNION CONDEMNS GOMPERS

Butte I. W. W. Crowd Says Labor Leader "Serves Capitalists."

Butte, Mont., Aug. 31.—The Hoisting Engineers' union of Butte passed a resolution declaring the shutdown of the Washoe smelter at Anaconda a walkout and not a lockout, as has been characterized by the Metal Mine Workers' union and Metal Trades Council of Butte. The engineers also refused to endorse the request of the striking miners for contributions to the strike fund.

The Metal Mine Workers' union adopted a resolution condemning Samuel Gompers for officiating as a member of the council of national defense, saying he is serving the interests of "kings and capitalists."

Home-Reading Course For Our Citizen-Soldiers

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this Course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 14.

THE TEAM LEADERS

(PRECEDING LESSONS—1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms. 10. Recreation in Camp. 11. Playing the Game. 12. Team Work in the Army. 13. Grouping Men Into Teams.)

Most of the men in the army are private soldiers. Their work is of the greatest importance and deserves all the respect and praise which it receives. A great many men in the National Army, however, will be ambitious to rise to higher ranks. They will find plenty of encouragement and of opportunities for promotion. If you are one of these men, don't allow yourself to forget the fact that you can win promotion only by proving your fitness in each duty entrusted to you. It is a rare case when a man is "jumped" several ranks ahead. As a rule, he climbs from one rank to the next higher rank after having demonstrated in each position his intelligence, honor and reliability.

Even as a private, you may win advancement to the grade known as first-class private. About one-fourth of the private in each company may be given the rating "first-class," which means in substance that they are regarded as skilled and trustworthy soldiers.

Non-Commissioned Officers. From the first-class private are usually chosen the corporals. These are the squad leaders. They are appointed by the commanding officer of the regiment on the recommendation of the commanding officer of the company. In addition to the regularly appointed corporals each company may have one lance corporal. This is a temporary appointment made by the company commander for the purpose of testing the ability of some private whom he is thinking of recommending for permanent appointment. In case the lance corporal does not make a good showing, or for any other reason, he may be returned to the ranks when the commander of the company sees fit.

Next above the corporal in rank comes the sergeant. There are usually 9 to 11 sergeants in a company. Unless a sergeant has some other duty assigned to him, he is normally the leader of a platoon. There are, however, many special duties constantly assigned to sergeants. The first sergeant (in army slang, the "top sergeant,") for example, keeps certain company records, forms the company in ranks, transmits orders from the company commander, and performs many other important tasks. The supply sergeant sees to bringing up supplies of all kinds to the company. The mess sergeant looks after food. The stable sergeant is responsible for the proper care of horses and mules. The color sergeant carries the national or regimental colors. There are many other grades within the rank of sergeant which can not be described.

The General Officers. Above the colonel is the brigadier general, whose proper command is a brigade. Above the brigadier general is the major general, the highest rank at present held by any officer of the American army.

One general, however, serves as chief of staff of the army. As such he supervises all troops and departments of the military service. He in turn reports to the secretary of war. The secretary of war in his turn acts under the general direction of the president of the United States, who is the commander in chief.

The chain of authority reaches in an unbroken line all the way from the president to the newest recruit. If the president chooses to give an order which in any way affects the recruit, it passes through the secretary of war, chief of staff, major general, brigadier general, colonel, major, captain, sergeant and possibly corporal until the recruit is reached and the order obeyed.

Ordinarily only the most general instructions are issued by the higher officers. The manner in which these instructions shall be carried out is left to the judgment of officers in closer contact with the troops and with a more intimate knowledge of the conditions under which they are working.

AIDS IN SANITARY WORK

Red Cross Will Assist Authorities at Army Camps.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Further plans of the Red Cross for co-operating with public health authorities to safeguard the health of civilian populations in the areas surrounding the national army cantonments were announced by the Red Cross war council. Units of the bureau of sanitary service, with full complements of bacteriologists and sanitarians, are to be dispatched at once to assist in establishing proper sanitary control adjoining seven army camps.

Problems in which the sanitary units of the Red Cross will particularly aid city and state health officials are insuring the purity of milk and water supplies for the civil population and in cleaning up unsanitary places near the camps which might serve as breeding places for germs.

W. H. Frost, surgeon of the public health service, has been detailed by the surgeon general to the Red Cross as director of this sanitary work.

Old engravings of mining work in the early part of the seventh century show that the pickax, chisel and hammer were the principal implements employed.

here. You will gradually become familiar with them during your army experience.

Commissioned Officers

Sergeants and corporals are known as noncommissioned officers, because they are appointed by their regimental commanding officer. Officers of higher ranks are known as commissioned, since they hold their rank by virtue of a commission issued to them under authority of the president of the United States. The commissioned officer is thus on quite a different footing from the "noncom" (noncommissioned officer). He obtains his rank and authority from a higher source. He is treated with respect which is of a different character from that extended to a noncommissioned officer. This is one of the fundamental things in army organization.

Lowest in rank among the commissioned officers is the second lieutenant. Above him comes the first lieutenant and above him the captain. These are the three "company officers." The captain is ordinarily the commanding officer of a company, while the lieutenants might be described as assistant captains. In the absence or disability of the captain, however, the first lieutenant takes his place and has full command, and in the absence or disability of both the second lieutenant takes the command.

Next above the captain is the major, whose proper command is a battalion. A step higher is the lieutenant colonel and above him the colonel, the commanding officer of a regiment. The lieutenant colonel ordinarily assists the colonel and in his absence takes the command. In case both the lieutenant colonel and the colonel are disabled or absent, the senior major takes the command.

The General Officers. Above the colonel is the brigadier general, whose proper command is a brigade. Above the brigadier general is the major general, the highest rank at present held by any officer of the American army.

One general, however, serves as chief of staff of the army. As such he supervises all troops and departments of the military service. He in turn reports to the secretary of war. The secretary of war in his turn acts under the general direction of the president of the United States, who is the commander in chief.

DEATH PENALTY FOR DESERTERS

"Rule of Blood and Iron" Is Applied to Russians.

REPULSE STRONG ATTACKS

Two Slav Regiments Desert Their Posts in Fokshani Region, but Their Place Has Been Taken by Loyal Men—Italians Continue Intensive Attacks on Austrians.

London, Aug. 31.—The death penalty and the "rule of blood and iron" announced some time ago in Russia by Premier Kerensky and reaffirmed by him at the Moscow conference seems already to have been applied to the deserters before Fokshani. This is indicated in the official Russian communication, which says one of the cowardly regiments was "dispersed."

"The necessity for partial re-establishment of the death penalty for revolt hurts my very soul," Premier Kerensky told the members of the Moscow conference, "but for the salvation of the country we will kill all our souls. The army must be organized." While the Russians west of Fokshani again have deserted their posts, thereby permitting the Teutonic allies to make further gains in the regions of Ochna and Kezdi-Vasarhely, they have repulsed strong attacks.

Fill Gap With Loyal Men.

Between Ireshti and Fokshani a majority of the men comprising two Russian regiments deserted their trenches and fled, but the Russian commanders have taken steps to restore the line by filling the gap with loyal men.

As is usual when the Germans see a faltering among their foes they have thrown into the battle line in Moldavia some of their tried attacking troops, who doubtless will press to the full the advantage they have gained through the cowardice of the Russians. On the Bainsizza plateau of the Austro-Italian theater, General Cadorna is giving the Austrians no rest, keeping up his intensive attacks along the entire front.

New gains of considerable importance have been made by the Italians. More than 500 new prisoners have been taken.

PLANS FORMED FOR PATRIOTIC MEETING

Flag Drill to be Given by Little Girls Under Direction of Mrs. Clyde E. Parker

MAYOR BEISE PRESIDING

Red Cross Chorus, Male Quartet, Band to Play, Effort to Get Outside Speakers Too

Plans for the patriotic meeting at the opera house next Tuesday evening in honor of the young men who leave soon for the war are progressing nicely, with every prospect for a large attendance and general public interest in the plan.

Special Features

Among the special features will be a flag drill by little girls from 9 to 12 years of age, under the direction of Mrs. Clyde E. Parker. The Red Cross chorus, made up of six young ladies in the costume of Red Cross nurses, also directed by Mrs. Parker will be another entertaining feature of the program.

The male quartette will give a number of patriotic numbers and the Brainerd band will be present to furnish music during the evening.

Opera House Free

The use of the opera house has been donated by the management free of charge and the committee is receiving cordial support and co-operation from every source, the plan being generally recognized as an excellent one and the cause one in which every citizen should feel a keen interest.

Arrangements are being made whereby the band will donate their services gratis, the same taking the place of the regular open air concert scheduled for the coming week.

All Invited

The public generally and drafted men in particular are invited to be present. An effort is being made to secure a list of the Brainerd men who have passed examination and soon leave for training camps and the invitation is extended to every man in the county who will join the colors soon. Parents and relatives of these young men should not fail to attend the meeting, urge their neighbors to attend and join in the goodbye demonstration in honor of our soldiers.

Seeking Speaker

Chairman Albright was busy today in an effort to secure a prominent public speaker from the Twin Cities or elsewhere. The demand for speakers is much in excess of the supply and the bureau having this in charge is having its hand full to secure a sufficient number.

The public is assured that some man of prominence will be present for the meeting and that a rousing patriotic address will be made. Mayor R. A. Beise will preside at the meeting and is working in hearty accord with the committee.

The old soldiers are planning to attend in a body and the G. A. R. will be well represented. It is probable that special reservations will be made for them and the W. R. C. in the auditorium.

Mr. Sorenson will have ample display room in the store and his alterations will be made by Arthur Johnson.

Both business men will be glad to meet their old friends at the new location and are glad to make all the new friends they can.

STORES CLOSING LABOR DAY

From the general sentiment displayed today it is evident that stores in Brainerd will be closed on Labor Day, September 3. So shopping will be strenuous tonight and Saturday.

Many automobile and picnic parties will be formed. Some will make it a three days' outing by leaving the city Saturday and enjoying part of Saturday and all of Sunday and Monday on the farm, at the lakes, etc.

A large majority will stay in Brainerd too and picnic at Lum park which offers entertainment for the day.

The great moving picture spectacle "Intolerance," will keep many in the city. It makes its first appearance in Brainerd after a successful run in St. Paul and Minneapolis. In fact, Brainerd sees this spectacle before Duluth does. A big feature is the music-accompanying the pictures.

No Daily Dispatch will be published on Labor Day.

ROLL OF HONOR

Lieut. A. S. Keillher, officer of the Fort Snelling training camp called to Illinois, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Koop.

Omer Ernster, son of John Ernster, has received a commission as second lieutenant in the engineering corps. He graduated four years ago from the Brainerd high school and later took the engineering course at the University of Minnesota. At Shelby, Mont., he has been employed as geologist by the Producers Oil Co. of Texas and Oklahoma.

The same day that Al Victor became father of a big bouncing boy also brought him his commission as second lieutenant in the engineering reserve corps. Al is well known in the sport world as one of the most reliable pitchers in the game.

Business Hours at the Post Office on Monday, Sept. 3d, Labor Day

SHOOTING FOR RIZE TROPHY

Brainerd Rifle Club Shoot Sunday, Sept. 2, Will Draw Large Crowd to the Range

THE FINE BADGE IS OF BRONZE

Won Last Year by R. J. Tinkelpaugh Who Had it Converted Into a Watch Fob

The Brainerd Rifle club on Sunday will shoot for the National Rifle Association trophy, a bronze badge donated by the association. The targets will be 10 shots at 200 yards rapid fire, 300 and 500 yards slow fire. The man with the highest score gets the trophy.

Last year it was won by R. J. Tinkelpaugh and he had his prize converted into a watch fob.

Brainerd has one of the few rifle clubs well stocked with ammunition. Orders recently received from the war department are to the effect that all guns held by the rifle club as club property are to be placed in shape to be returned immediately on notice from the department.

"Intolerance"

So extraordinary was the interest yesterday in the seat sale for "Intolerance" that Manager Workman of the Park opera house now wishes he had booked the famous spectacle for a longer engagement than next Sunday and Monday. The eager manner in which choice locations were snapped up indicates that local play-goers are fully aware of the opportunity "Intolerance" offers in the way of unusual entertainment.

This latest Griffith art-work, like its predecessor, "The Birth of a Nation," has the reputation of playing to crowded houses everywhere, and it is the rule rather than the exception that the demand for seats far exceeds the supply. As it is impossible for Manager Workman to book a return date of this mammoth production this season it behooves everybody who wants to attend one of the forthcoming presentations to secure their seats without delay.

In every way the production to be seen here will duplicate the one that ran for six months at the Liberty theatre, New York, including a symphony orchestra and chorus of voices.

An ostrich feather, if held upright, will be seen to be perfectly equal on both sides, the stem dividing it exactly in the center. In other feathers the stems are found to be more or less on one side.

LABOR DAY AT LUM PARK

Although Brainerd will have no official celebration on Labor Day, the management of Lum park will put on some special features for the afternoon and evening. A more beautiful and convenient picnic ground cannot be found in the state and every family of the city should take advantage of the remaining few days of the summer to visit and picnic at the park.

Monday evening a big dance will be given introducing some new and novel features.

PEACE IS PUT UP TO PEOPLE OF GERMANY

Washington, Aug. 31.—Persons in high authority who have discussed peace prospects with the president have gathered the definite impression that Mr. Wilson confidently expects the German people to bring about the constitutional reform which would put the chancellor under control of the reichstag.

Such a reform, these persons believe, would be accepted by the president as a sincere democratic movement on the part of Germany, which would curb effectually the military domination of the kaiser and his war autocrats.

The president is reported to have told his advisers that his reply to the pope had not closed the door to peace, but had opened it to the German people, who, he believes, would act.

Even should there be a real change in Germany's government and its people convince the United States of a manifest desire to negotiate peace it was declared this government would not enter into negotiations without first consulting its allies.

GRUMBLING.

Grumbling is a potent cause of ill health. It keeps the sensitive nerves vibrating with discordant emotions and not only hurts the grumbler, but every one who hears it. It really weakens a person and prepares the system of the grumbler for an attack of any malady that happens to be prevalent.

SUFFER MANY INDIGNITIES

Escaped Russian Prisoners Tell of German Treatment.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Starved, beaten and subjected to many indignities prisoners of war in Germany are being compelled to work in trench and field under the fire from the armies of their countries.

Reports made by Russian soldiers who have escaped from Germany and which have been transmitted to the state department say prisoners of all nationalities are being used on work just behind the lines and within range of the guns.

A small portion of bread, some thin soup and occasionally a bit of meat or horses shot in action comprise their rations.

HUDSON REFUSES PEACE MEETING

Declines to Allow People's Council Convention.

PACIFISTS HAVE HARD TIME

Mob Gathers in Wisconsin City and Is With Difficulty Restrained From Harming Several Delegates Already on Scene—Time and Place of Gathering Again Up in the Air.

Hudson, Wis., Aug. 31.—Secretary Louis P. Lochner, Publicity Agent William E. Williams, Charles Kruse, president of the New York Brotherhood Welfare association, Miss Florence Margolies of New York, president of the Workers' Council, her woman secretary and a woman stenographer, the headquarters committee of the National People's Council, were run out of town by a mob.

The pacifist delegation was not harmed owing to an impassioned appeal from County Attorney N. O. Varnum, who urged the mob to let them go quietly and not commit violence.

The action of the crowd followed a public mass meeting in front of the armory, at which speeches were made by Major Sam Campbell, a veteran of the Civil war, Mayor F. E. Condit, Dr. G. F. King, W. S. Bradley Percy, Ap Roberts, publisher of the Star and Times, and County Attorney Varnum, after adopting resolutions of protest against the peace conference.

The mass meeting dissolved into a mob and jammed into the Chapin Hall hotel, where Charles Kruse, Miss Margolies and two other women were sitting in the lobby.

Asked to Sign Petition

Major Campbell shook a petition beneath the nose of Mr. Kruse, protesting against the conference, and demanded he sign.

Kruse held his ground and so did the women. He would not sign.

"Get a rope," some one shouted; "get the tar and feathers," said another; "hang 'em," shouted a third.

The crowd pressed forward and a half dozen hands were laid on Kruse. Cries of "kill the copperheads," "string up the kaiserites," "down with sedition," filled the room.

For a moment it looked as though blood would be spilled.

At this critical juncture County Attorney Varnum jumped on a chair and saved the now thoroughly frightened outfit. By appealing to the crowd's better judgment he succeeded in calming the mob on the promise of Kruse and the women, given with trembling lips, to leave town at once.

Way was made for the council's committee to get their stuff out of their rooms. They were given short time even to do this and five minutes later they were bundled into a big touring car and rushed to the Omaha depot, where they arrived just in time to catch a train for Minneapolis.

Hoot and Hiss Delegates.

Beyond hooting and hissing at them no violence was offered on the way to the depot as they were being escorted out of town.

Secretary Lochner told the driver of the car that they were through with Hudson and would not try to hold their meeting here.

Previous to the mass meeting the council held a special meeting and adopted the following resolutions: "Resolved, by the common council of the city of Hudson, that the National People's Council of America be and hereby is forbidden to hold any meeting or convention in the city of Hudson and the mayor and police force of the city are instructed to carry this resolution into effect."

Thus endeth the efforts of the People's National Council to hold its peace meeting in Wisconsin and, after having been forbidden in Minnesota, abandoning North Dakota because of fear of mob violence, then driven out of Wisconsin by a mob, it now is up to Secretary Lochner to try to locate some more congenial haven.

BILL WILL PASS QUICKLY

War Bond Measure Goes to House on Saturday.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The $11,538,945,640 war bond and certificate bill will be favorably reported to the house Saturday in virtually the same form it was presented to the ways and means committee by Secretary McAdoo and will be passed probably Wednesday.

Republican opposition to the measure disappeared when administration leaders agreed to minor compromises.

Administration leaders began laying plans for its early consideration in the senate.

DR. M. L. BURTON.

Urges "Berlin or Bust" as American Slogan.

BURTON COINS WAR SLOGAN

University President Favors Adopting "Berlin or Bust."

Minneapolis, Aug. 31.—Pacifists, anti-draft propagandists and other objectors to the government's war policy were bitterly denounced by Marion LeRoy Burton, president of the University of Minnesota, in an address to the Northwest educators at the university farm.

The university head predicted that in spite of all these obstacles democracy would crush autocracy in the great battle that is tearing the nations to shreds.

President Burton asserted there is one slogan he would like to see the Americans—loyal Americans—adopt, and that is "Berlin or Bust."

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which more makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freezeone applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freezeone, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.
